Airports Economic Regulatory Authority of India

Overview of the Authority:

Airports Economic Regulatory Authority of India (AERA) is a statutory body constituted under the Airports Economic Regulatory Authority of India Act, 2008. AERA is entrusted with the responsibility to regulate tariff and other charges for the aeronautical services rendered at airports and to monitor performance standards of airports. As an independent economic regulator, AERA aims to create level playing field, foster healthy competition amongst all major airports, to encourage investment in airport facilities and regulate tariffs for aeronautical services.

Vision:

To create a level playing field consequent to private sector participating in Airports and to foster healthy competition amongst all major airports to encourage investment in airport facilities.

Mission:

Ensure fair and transparent economic regulation of major airports in India to promote efficiency, investment, and growth in the aviation sector.
