Bergen light rail reaches the airport

Can autonomous vehicles replace rail for airport access?

USA: Instead of building a rail link to the airport San Jose Mayor Sam Liccardo is considering installing a dedicated lane for autonomous vehicles only.

"I agree that light rail should have gone to the airport when that line was built 26 years ago. Now we face a different, and much more expensive, challenge: retrofitting a line that would cost $800 million or more, at a time when we've got many other transit projects (BART, Caltrain electrification, Diridon Station, bus rapid transit, and Eastridge light rail). That's why I'm working with our Department of Transportation (DOT) team to explore some less costly alternatives, including an autonomous-only lane between Diridon and the airport," the Mayor said answering a letter sent to him from one of the San Jose citizens.

London Southend Airport places second in Race to the City challenge from Amsterdam to the London Stock Exchange

UK: With over 160 million passengers expected to use London's airports this year, London Southend Airport has compared data for each of the locations to see which would win in a race to the city.

The race started at an origin common to all the main airports and one of the most popular – Amsterdam. It ended at a London icon –the Stock Exchange (or at the platform you would step on to at nearest tube, St Paul's, when arriving by London Underground).

Arlanda Express ranked top for service for fifth consecutive year

SWEDEN: Arlanda Express has been yet again recognised as a company that provides the best service in Sweden offering land-based transport. This is the fifth consecutive year that Arlanda Express has claimed the top spot in ServiceScore's nationwide survey among Swedish customers and consumers. ServiceScore® measures how Swedish consumers perceive customer responsiveness and service among companies offering land-based transport.

Construction starts on Central Java airport rail link

INDONESIA: Construction has started on a 13.5km rail link connecting Adi Sumarmo International Airport and Central Java from Surakarta (also known as Solo).

The line will be built by a consortium of Indonesian Railways (KAI), PT Angkasa Pura I, and PT Pembinaan Perumahan.

Bergen light rail reaches the airport

NORWAY: Saturday 22nd April marked the official opening day of the Bybanen light rail line extension to Bergen Airport.

"Flesland is the most important gateway to the rest of the country and the world and the opening of the rail line today marks the completion of the Bybanen extension to the South," City Council representative Anna Elisa Tryti said.

Government confirms £173.5 million funding to improve transport in Leeds

UK: Transport Minister Andrew Jones has confirmed a £173.5 million transport funding package for Leeds, which includes new integrated bus corridors, improved park and ride facilities and better wayfinding.

The package also allows Leeds to develop proposals for local rail improvements, including an airport parkway station, subject to wider rail industry consultation.
